“In Friendship We Learn”

REMEMBRANCE DAY THIS SUNDAY

Sunday, 11 November 2018 marks the 100th anniversary of the Armistice

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.

A small donation can simply save lives

From 25 November to 10 December, the 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence is a time to galvanize action to end violence against women and girls around the world.

This year Wagga Family Support Service and the Women's Domestic Violence Court Advocacy Services are presenting a book launch and information session to raise awareness of the 16 Days of Activism and the important issue of violence against women.

The Skinny Girl is Steve M. Matthews' first adult novel. Although this is a work of fiction, it is based on interviews, research and published works. Raw, powerful and thought-provoking, The Skinny Girl explores the topic of domestic violence through a relationship between shy Daisy Croucher and popular pub local Jeff Singleton. The novel discusses the ways attitudes, values, and culture contribute to abuse, and the path to change.

The funds raised on the day from book sales will help to support women and children experiencing domestic violence, to remain living where they choose and have the violent person leave.

A Story of silence that must be told

Speakers:

Aunty Cheryl Penrith (Welcome to Country)
Greg Conkey (Wagga Wagga Mayor)
Steve Matthews (Author)
